Ohio homeowners may begin submitting applications for financial assistance to prevent default or foreclosure on-line at www.savethedream.ohio.gov or by phoning toll-free at 1-800-464-4764. For faster service, the OHFA (Ohio Housing Finance Agency) encourages homeowners to visit the website to begin the registration process so their information can be immediately forwarded to one of the specialized housing counselors in their local area. All applicants will be referred to one of the agencies who will then work with them to help them qualify for the over $300 million available from the OHFA Restoring Stability Program. No internet? Your local branch of the Columbus Metropolitan Library can help you.

'Tis the Season...

...for colds and flu, that is! A number of far eastside locations are offering flu vaccines this year. The Andersons, on Alshire, right behind the Pride Center, has them available on Saturday, Oct. 9th from 10 AM to 2 PM, and again on Wednesday, Oct. 13th, from 3 PM to 7 PM, and most insurance is accepted. A new website can help you locate a flu shot near you: <http://www.flu.gov>. Simply type your zipcode into the locator, and get all the nearest locations, hours and pricing information.
